

Paul H. Nakamura
EXCHANGE: Lands, Horses,
Grain, Vegetables, Seed &c
Office, Rm. 9 Security Bldg.
RAYMOND - ALBERTA

The Raymond Leader

C. W. Card & Sons
Livery and Transfer
Auto in Connection
Raymond, Alberta

VOL

RAYMOND, ALBERTA, SATURDAY, May 6, 1916

No

Pool Hall Men Must Now Pay

Act Was Amended

Sometime in the dying days of the provincial legislature an amendment to the Pool Hall's Act was brought down. This amendment is of great interest to the people of the south in that it makes it legal for towns and cities to impose a licence on pool halls, which under the act in its un-amended form, was impossible. Thus pool hall operators must pay both a provincial and municipal licence.

The ladies of Cardston recently tendered a banquet to Martin Woolf M. P., in recognition of his work in connection with the passage of the Women's Suffrage bill. The affair was a signal success. It was non-partisan, according to the Cardston Globe, which publishes a large cut of Mr. Woolf on its front page, calling him "The Man of the Hour."

The marriage of W. O. Crowe, of the Royal Flying Corps, to Miss Lilian Crossley was solemnized quietly some time ago in Blackpool, England. This military wedding is interesting to local people as the groom was for several years teller at the Bank of Montreal here.

Charley Smith has been awarded the contract to paint the office and fire hall for the municipality. This is something that has been needed for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy O'Brien left this morning for Layton Utah, where they will reside.

BOY'S CLOTHING. A new line just in at the Merc.

CUPID HIT HARD BY LOCAL CENSORSHIP

That the censorship of letters, especially love letters, is the order in Raymond was proven conclusively on a recent evening when Lethbridge one evening this week, he went to his trunk to get a letter which he had partially written to his best girl residing in the east. On opening it he read along the bottom these words, penned in a feminine hand: "This has been Censored Too. Ha, ha." The maestro of conflicting emotions can better be imagined than described. But the fair hand of Censors are known, and while their motives are no doubt of the highest order and were taken to insure the safety of the empire, this young bachelor tells the Leader that he himself is the best censor in matters relating to the peaceful prosecution of an affair of the heart.

Thus far this season Z. N. Skouson has sold about a dozen new "Ford" cars. His record is one of the best in Western Canada. When it comes to hustling none of them have it on Z. N.

King brothers have placed an order for a "Chivoret," five passenger car, and will receive it just as soon as the Lethbridge agency can supply the demand. The sales of this car in the West have been enormous this Spring.

Secretary Kimball completed this week the Honour Roll for Raymond and district. He also made a similar roll for the Magrath council. Both are done in pen and ink and are of very skillful workmanship.

Welsh Singers Create Favorable Impression At Brilliant Concert

The Royal Gwent Welsh Male Singers appeared in Raymond for the first time Tuesday night and by universal opinion they were voted the finest aggregation of singers that has ever been heard here. What the Welsh Quartette was in quartette work, they were in chorus work.

Their rendition of the Soldiers Chorus, Comrades in Arms and other selections ensemble were executed with remarkable volume perfect enunciation and clear-cut attack. "The Hallelujah Chorus" from The Messiah, was rendered with magnificent effect the resonant tones and marvelous harmony, intensified by a fine spirit, combining to make this a grand finale to a brilliant evening.

The solo, duet and quartette work was very fair. The second half of the concert came to a rather abrupt ending, which is a about the only criticism possible. The large audience was pleased with the program.

Letters received by Thomas Allen from his brother, Bob, who is with the motor ambulance corps "somewhere in France," state that there are indications of a mighty advance soon. Bob has been made a corporal, and feels justly proud of the promotion.

Mrs. Joseph Maudsley is enjoying a visit with relatives at Salt Lake City and other Utah cities.

Conference of Stake Opens

Church Leaders Here

The quarterly conference of the Taylor stake opened this morning and will continue all day today and Sunday. Apolite Clawson and Elder B. H. Roberts are in attendance. One of the largest conferences in the history of the stake is expected.

The singing which will be conducted by Mr. C. B. Strong will consist of the following numbers: "I Will Extol Thee," by Farris; "Sing Unto the Lord," by Davis; "Serve the Lord With Gladness," by Blowers.

"Saviour Breathe an Evening Blessing," by Kratz; "Grant Us Peace, O Lord!" by Fran Stevens.

"Lead Kindly Light," by a 16 voice chorus. Soloists, James Walker, Ella Miller, Mrs. Arthur Nilsson, Mrs. O. H. Snow, Miss Nalder, Chas. Smith, duet, Miss Erisson, Mr. Stone, Organists, N. Lorenzo Mitchell and Edith Cammock, Mrs. Nilsson and company will render a quartette.

Civic Improvement

Supt. Powell has installed electric lights in each room of the fire hall and over the door of the town hall. These lights will materially facilitate operations in case of fire. He also has the public drinking fountain on Broadway in operation. This fountain is one of the town's greatest assets, and outsiders speak in highest terms of it. What we next need to make Broadway a street which will be a credit to a live, thriving town like Raymond is more street lights. The Leader has agitated this for some time. Some of the aldermen are in favor of the improvement. Let us have more lights.

Create Frogs By Artificial Means

Washington, May 2—Although the chemical creation of living things by artificial fertilization is an actual accomplishment, recent experiments along the same lines have tended to show that in the case of frogs, only males can be produced, according to Dr. Jacques Loeb, of the Rockefeller Institute of New York, one of the leading zoologists of the world.

Thos. E. Ott

Hail Insurance
British America Assurance

Rex Tailoring

Agency Suits Made to order. Try On

Barbering Specialty
Baths in Connection

A strong company of local artists will present the great war drama "Within the Lines," at the Opera House Saturday night.

Mrs. Rev. Toombs, of Nanton, is visiting friends in town this week.

Dr. C. M. FLETCHER DENTIST

At Raymond Every Thursday
Cardston - Alberta

FARMERS

Money to Lend Farms for Sale

We have a limited amount of Trust money to lend on improved farms situated within a 10 mile radius of Edmonton & railway where the owner—not a renter—is in residence, maintaining the farm in first-class shape.

We have also some excellent bargains in farms, improved and unimproved, belonging to Trust Estates under our care which must be realized on at once. Send for particulars.

Agents wanted in unrepresented districts. References required. Apply to The Standard Trust Co., Winnipeg

SERVICE THROUGH THE WHOLE YEAR
DUNLOP TREAD
Add a service you need to tell your friends about. Notice the number of "Traction Spots" that are cut in envelopes on the tire, but not in the open wearing the "V" angle that wears smooth off. Prove in possession accounts for this desire to have the car look its best.
Dunlop Tire & Rubber Goods Co.
414-416 Centre Street, Winnipeg, Man.

King K. B. Bros. "THE HOUSE OF QUALITY"

Gentlemen

We wish to announce that we have secured the exclusive selling rights for the famous

Forsyth Shirt

Unbreakable Button-holes in The Guaranteed Forsyth SHIRT
A special patented machine makes Forsyth buttonholes. The heavy wringing off of the collar—this sharp tug at the button—leaves your Forsyth buttonhole round, without any annoying risk to break, a heavy reinforcement for extra strength. And for Forsyth shirts and Forsyth buttonholes. Guaranteed. Price 50c.
"A New Shirt for the New Year"

We have just received a line of these Shirts without doubt one of the best shirts made in Canada.

BUY OUR GROCERIES

Come in and let us show you our excellent teas, coffee and special brands of flour; canned goods and package goods. You'll see fresh, wholesale foods at low prices.

Buy and use our HEALTHFUL groceries; they will keep you and your family smiling and happy and they will cost no more than poor stuff.

Fresh Groceries

Currents	.15 cts
Raisins	.15 cts
Sultanas	.17 1-2 cts
Evap. Apricots	.12 1-2 cts
" Peaches	.13 cts
" Prunes	.13 cts
Malkin's best coffee, air tight tins	.45 cts
Empress Coffee	.50 cts
Cowans Cocoa	.30 cts
Fry's Cocoa, 20, 30, 60
O. B. Flour	3.35
Straight Grade	2.85

We Pay

Best Price

for Butter & Eggs

Raymond Mercantile Co.,
"We Want Your Trade"

Live News of Busy Magrath

More Recruits

Recent recruits for the 13th O. M. R. secured by Lieut. Karren are the following: J. W. Thompson, Ernest Dalton, Jos. Foggin, Jim Foggin, H. Swail, low, Albert Campbell, Jos. Millar, and A. Millar. Fred is still receiving congratulations on receiving the appointment, the number including a message from J. S. Dennis, of the C. P. R. Calgary.

At the request of authorities the Leader is omitting an important piece of military news, but assurances are given that it will be released for publication next week.

Military Party

Pte. John Bridge of the 13th O. M. R., was the honored guest at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fletcher Tuesday evening. All of the recent recruits were present as well as a large number of relatives and friends. At half-time the guests sat down to a sumptuous supper. The Bridge was presented with an elegant wrist watch by his relatives. A most pleasant evening was spent by all.

Ira C. Fletcher, Proprietor of the Magrath Pharmacy, has purchased a "Chevrolet."

Joseph Harker, manager of the local creamery, was in the Raymond district Thursday boosting business.

Lieut. Karren Is Honored by Council

At the conclusion of the council meeting on Wednesday evening a most delightful social was held in honor of Ald. Lieut. Karren. The affair was very capably managed by Aldermen Bennon and Pingree, very ably assisted by Mrs. Bennon and Mrs. Pingree. A dainty lunch was served, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the lawmakers, clerical staff, chief of police and scribes.

The climax was reached, when Ald. Gibb after an appropriate address presented Ald. Karren with a wrist watch, handsomely engraved, being a token of appreciation from his fellow councilmen. Ald. Karren was visibly affected, and feelingly thanked the council for their expression of good-will and the elegant present. "Every time I look at that watch, I shall think of the town council and happy times we had together there," said Lieut. Karren, concluding with a speech on the duty of men in this grave hour. Rounds of applause followed his stirring address.

With Act. Mayor Bennon as toastmaster short, pointed talks were given by Aldermen Gibb, C. H. Karren, Heninger, Pingree, Secretary Woodruff, Constable Fowler, S. R. Wright, of the Patriotic Fund, Mrs. Bennon, and P. C. Steele, of the Raymond Leader.

T. W. Green Wounded

Former Publisher Of Magrath Pioneer

Gunner T. W. Green, well known printer of the south and former editor of the Magrath Pioneer, has been wounded in the face in the firing line. He was listed this week. His wife lives at Lethbridge and his parents north of Taber.

Tommy Green is widely known in Southern Alberta. He commenced the printing business with the old Lethbridge News, and later worked on the Calgary Herald, Magrath Pioneer, Cardston Star, Lethbridge Herald and Taber Times.

Town Council

The town council met in regular session Wednesday night with all present except Mayor Ririe, who could not leave his sheep. Considerable routine business was transacted.

A communication from the department of municipal affairs was read re a change in the system of levying and collecting taxes.

The monthly pay-roll was read, and on recommendation of the finance committee was passed unanimously. The bills for the soldier's banquet were presented and ordered paid.

Ald. Karren tendered his resignation in view of his enlistment for overseas service. Ald. Heninger moved that inasmuch as Ald. Karren had not yet left the district, that his resignation be not accepted. Ald. Gibb seconded the motion, and it was carried.

This finished the business and the meeting adjourned.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST LAND REGULATIONS

THE solehead of a family, or any male over 18 years old may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency that not Sub-agency on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section along side his homestead. Price $1.00 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent; also 50 acres extra cultivation. Preemption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $500.

The area of cultivation is subject to reduction in case of rough, arable or stony land. Livestock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

W. W. CORY C.M.G., Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will be paid for - 50¢.

BULLETIN

N. S. Forsyth chairman of the Magrath School Board, Clyde Howes, farmer, and A. Coleman, barber enlisted today, with the 13th.

PRIVATE A FAULTLEY of Raymond wounded and gassed at St. Julien who is again at the front.

The 13th O. M. R. recruits left yesterday morning for Medicine Hat where they will go into training. Ptes. Ostlund and Mercer will teach in khaki during the rest of the term.

TWINE. Farmers have a car of "Plymouth" Twine for early fall delivery. See us early about your supply. King Bros.

DURUM WHEAT

THIS IS THE kind of wheat used in the manufacture of macaroni flour. We have several cars of this wheat in stock and can offer it to the public for seedling. Mr. Raymond Knight of Raymond Alta., has grown sixty bushels to the acre of this wheat and it will stand the drought better than any other wheat. We are offering it at $1.20 per bushel sacked.

WE CAN ALSO offer "Marquis" wheat, oats, headless and six reed barley, flax and peas for seed. Call on us or write us for prices.

Ellison Milling & Elevator Co.

LETHBRIDGE - ALTA.

Douglas Fowler, after completing his course at Varsity, returned home Wednesday from Edmonton. Douglas has accepted a position in Jackson's drug store, Lethbridge. We wish him all kinds of success.

Our Stock is Always Fresh
Soft Drinks, Ice Cream, Soda Fountain

Candy Tobacco Cigars
Good Meals our Specialty

LONG JIM

FRUIT & CONFECTIONERY
Magrath - Alta.

PAINT UP!

We Carry a Complete Line of

"PRISM"

and

"BAPCO"

PAINTS

Paint Saves Your Buildings

GRANT & DAVIES

Magrath Phone 82 Alberta

MEN'S
"INVICTUS"
SHOES now in Stock
LATEST LASTS

A big line of Misses & Children's
3.00 Shoes To Clear 2.15

Complete Range of Laces,
Veilings, Embroideries, Etc.

"REDMOND" HATS
For Boys $1.25

Dressy
SUITS!
FOR
Boys
Youths
Men

Magrath Trading Co.,
"A Good Place To Trade"

A MEDLEY OF SPRING COATS

VARIETY in style, design and color is surely the feature of the coats offered for springtime. This fact makes it quite easy for every woman to find something to suit her needs.

Women who admire leather trimming on their garments will be glad to see that the material is in greater vogue than ever. All colors are used. A very effective result is gained by using dark leather on a light material. The cream-colored rajah coat is beautified by the long strip of soft green suede extending from the neck to the hem, piping the collar and cuffs and forming a belt effect around the sides and back of coat.

Joseph's coat of many colors must have inspired the designer of the cream-colored coat showing the odd use of contrasting colors. The unusual sleeve, with its sub cuff and the clever placing of bands of tussor to form stripes, is a point that should be heeded.

Every time a new season comes round it brings with it a generous supply of plaids, but, as a rule, the plaids are of brilliant colors. As a change, here is a coat which boasts of the fashionable pattern depicted in somber blue relieved by white silk lines forming blocks. The pockets at either side of the front are lined with white kid and are finished with crowsfeet embroidered in white. A white kid collar and white buttons add a pleasing touch.

Never have stripes been brought to the front so prominently as they are this season. Very chic and "springy" is the broadly striped gray-and-white flannel coat. One can spend many minutes figuring in just which direction the stripes run at various points of the wrap.

An important feature of many coats is the introduction of a cape. There is such variety in the placing of the capes that it is difficult to say just which style is most favored. A very unusual whim of fashion is the joining of the cape to the coat at the collar top. Blue duvetyne is the material chosen for the garment showing the cape effect. The cape, by the way, is embroidered in self color.

Add a topcoat to your wardrobe so that you will be ready for the weather which does not call for a heavy wrap and yet will not permit one to go without a light-weight coat.

Elaborate Use of Leather on Rajah

This Cape is Hung From the Collar Top

Clever Arrangement of Wide Stripes

WITHIN THE LAW

BY MARVIN DANA

(Copyright)

(Continued)

Darcy reiterated the accusation. "One of you killed Griggs. Which one of you did it?" he asked at Dick. "Did she kill him?" "I told you no!" "Well, then, it must be the other," Dick said. "The one of his head was toward the door. You saw him there. He was talking to you. He stopped. That is all I know." "The reply came with such quietness that was like a grain of sand."

"Yes."

"Dick asked the girl in reproachful amazement."

"Mary," he cried indignantly.

"You'll never be killed then," Burke asked lightly.

"As this interloper, assuming as he did to be Edward Griggs, he really died in his chair."

"God!" he cried despairingly. "And that's your version?"

"I don't want vengeance now," she said.

"But they'll try to lay my hands on the woman," he protested, distraught.

"Oh, no, they can't!" came the rejoinder.

"What's the reason we can't?" Burke roared.

"Because my husband merely killed a burglar. He shot him in defense of his home."

***

In his office next morning, Inspector Burke was looking over the file of his conspiracy. He had hoped through his plot to vindicate his authority, so easily haunted by Gerson and Mary Turner. Instead, this much-to-be-dreaded result of his scheming the outcome had been nothing less than disaster.

Some one had murdered Griggs, the stout burglar. The murder could not go unpunished. The slayer's identity must be determined. To the discovery of this identity, the Inspector was at the present moment devoting all his efforts to avoid questioning of Darcy and Chicago Red, who had been arrested in one of their revolutionary schemes.

"Come across here," he admonished. "You're called for. There's a man in a jail of his name. He was on his feet, facing the two men, and he was thrust forward manfully, and his eyes were savage."

"I don't know, nothing!" Chicago Red's voice was between a snarl and a whimper. "I know nothing."

Burke gave Darcy, who changed to be the noisier of the two, a shove that sent the fellow staggering into the street across the room under his impetus.

"Darcy, how long have you been out?"

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

***

In his office next morning, Inspector Burke was looking over the file of his conspiracy. He had hoped through his plot to vindicate his authority, so easily haunted by Gerson and Mary Turner. Instead, this much-to-be-dreaded result of his scheming the outcome had been nothing less than disaster.

Some one had murdered Griggs, the stout burglar. The murder could not go unpunished. The slayer's identity must be determined. To the discovery of this identity, the Inspector was at the present moment devoting all his efforts to avoid questioning of Darcy and Chicago Red, who had been arrested in one of their revolutionary schemes.

"Come across here," he admonished. "You're called for. There's a man in a jail of his name. He was on his feet, facing the two men, and he was thrust forward manfully, and his eyes were savage."

"I don't know, nothing!" Chicago Red's voice was between a snarl and a whimper. "I know nothing."

Burke gave Darcy, who changed to be the noisier of the two, a shove that sent the fellow staggering into the street across the room under his impetus.

"Darcy, how long have you been out?"

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

***

In his office next morning, Inspector Burke was looking over the file of his conspiracy. He had hoped through his plot to vindicate his authority, so easily haunted by Gerson and Mary Turner. Instead, this much-to-be-dreaded result of his scheming the outcome had been nothing less than disaster.

Some one had murdered Griggs, the stout burglar. The murder could not go unpunished. The slayer's identity must be determined. To the discovery of this identity, the Inspector was at the present moment devoting all his efforts to avoid questioning of Darcy and Chicago Red, who had been arrested in one of their revolutionary schemes.

"Come across here," he admonished. "You're called for. There's a man in a jail of his name. He was on his feet, facing the two men, and he was thrust forward manfully, and his eyes were savage."

"I don't know, nothing!" Chicago Red's voice was between a snarl and a whimper. "I know nothing."

Burke gave Darcy, who changed to be the noisier of the two, a shove that sent the fellow staggering into the street across the room under his impetus.

"Darcy, how long have you been out?"

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'nuthin' about it!"

The Inspector's fist shot out toward Chicago Red's jaw. The third went to his knees under the blow.

"Now, get up and talk!" Burke's voice came with unrelenting insistence against the other's silence.

"Cringing Chicago Red obeyed as far as the getting up, but he refused to answer."

"I'm sorry," he got slowly to his feet but took a step back at a respectful distance from the Inspector.

"Cassidy entered the Inspector's office to announce the arrival of the girl."

"A week!"

"Want to go back for another stretch?"

"God, no!"

"Who shot Griggs?"

"The reply was a chorus from the two:

"I don't know—nothing, I don't!"

In his rage, Chicago Red moved toward his questioner.

"Honest to Gawd, I don't know 'n

Look! Listen!

WE HAVE, in addition to a complete line of good, fresh GROCERIES, a nifty Line of

Hats and Shoes

FOR

Men and Women Boys and Girls

Selling at very Attractive
Prices, and your trade
will be appreciated

And Don't Forget the

BOX SALE

Every box contains Mlsc. or Orders valued at from 25cts to $12.50. You may get the order for the Ladies' Gold Watch. Come in and take a chance. You can't lose.

Hub Co. Ltd.

The Magrath Creamery Association

Wish to Announce the Opening of a

Receiving Station at RAYMOND

We Earnestly Solicit Your Patronage

SUPPORT HOME INDUSTRY

W. S. COX, Receiver

Announcement

We have secured the exclusive agency for the famous American and Canadian Clothes

"SOCIETY" Brand

Call and Inspect our Samples

THE BROADWAY

Egg Preserver

Eggs are cheap. Now is the time to preserve them.

25c worth will keep 150 Eggs
fresh for 2 years

Wm. Blair and Co.

DISPENSING CHEMIST

RAYMOND

ALTA

RAYMOND LEADER

Published Every Friday

$1.50 a Year in Advance

F. C. STEELE, Editor

We always had a great deal of a laudation for Dr. Michael Clarke M. P., and in taking his stand in patriotic support of Sir Robert Borden—waiving party politics in favor of the graver issues of the hour—he becomes a bigger man still. We need more men like Dr. Clarke in politics.

Southern Alberta sheepmen are prospering. The lambing season is progressing quite favorably and this year's wool clip promises to be a big one. That there is money in sheep is an unquestioned fact. The industry should be encouraged.

One man cancelled his subscription because of our criticism of the Desert News. We didn't lose much sleep over it, however, as he was delinquent three years with no prospects of an early settlement.

The ingenious escape of the six inmates from the Lethbridge camp is a most regrettable affair. It is to be hoped the responsibility will be fixed. Episodes of that kind don't look good.

The Herald reporter got a good story out of the German escape. Real, big stuff like that is a rarity in the northern burg. You know, our sympathy goes out to the Herald boys. News is scarce enough in Raymond, but what must it be in a town like Lethbridge.

It is Roosevelt or Hughes for the Republican nomination. And there seems to be an unrecurrent of disfavor toward Teddy. But from a distance the colonel strikes us as being the only hope of the Republican party.

Who is there that does not admire a man with courage sufficient to stand before thousands of people and say that he hoped that when the people of Utah through their representatives again passed a state-wide prohibition bill that they would have a governor in the chair with moral stamina to sign the bill and not veto it. That is what Apostle Anthony W. Ivins said at the recent conference at Salt Lake. We like men of Apostle Ivins' stamp.

Paint up! Clean up! has been the slogan in Raymond for the last three weeks. Painters, paperhangers and decorators have been very busy. They can hardly fill their orders. Housewives have brightened up their homes from cellar to garret, and the periodical martyrdom of dutiful husbands has been perpetrated on the end of a big stick, because, "You know, John dear, the carpets must be beaten." John wisely agrees without remonstrance and thus the good work goes on.

There are a lot of lawns that need cleaning up in Raymond, also back yards. Why not make Raymond a City Beautiful and a City Healthful this summer? Clean-up Day did wonders but there is still much that might be remedied.

Drew Crowds

Gaby Desly, the chic little French actress and dancer, whose bewitching grace and beauty is known throughout the world, made her initial appearance in Raymond Monday and Tuesday last at the Rex in "Her Triumph." The fair Gaby proved a big drawing card. The theatre was packed by an admiring audience. Next Monday, "The Country Boy" will be shown.

Production and Thrift

CANADA'S CALL FOR SERVICE AT HOME

Produce More and Save More

The Empire needs food. If you are not in the fighting line you may be in the producing line. Labour is limited—all the more reason to do more than ever before. Grow food for the men who are fighting for you. The Allies need all the food that you can produce. Every little helps. You are responsible for your own work. If you cannot produce as much as you would like, produce all you can. Work with the right spirit. Put fighting energy into your effort and produce now when it counts. The more you produce the more you can save. Producing and saving are war-service.

Make Your Labour Efficient

In war-time do not waste time and energy on unimportant and unprofitable work. Economize labour. Put off unproductive work till after the war, and if needs it all. If possible help to feed the Allies. Make your backyard a productive garden. Cultivate it with a will. Make your labour count for as much as possible.

Do Not Waste Materials

There should be no waste in war-time. Canada could pay the annual interest on her war expenditure out of what we waste on our farms, in our factories, in our homes. Every pound of food saved from waste is as good as a pound of increased production. The way for a nation to save is for every individual to save. France is strong to-day because of thrift in time of peace. The men and women of Great Britain are not only "doing" but are learning to "do without."

Spend Your Money Wisely

Practise economy in the home by eliminating luxuries. Wasting our dollars here weakens our strength at the front. Your savings will help Canada to finance the war. Save your money for the next Dominion War issue. There can be no better investment.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

PUBLIC NOTICE TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the Order of His Honor Judge Jackson of date the 14th day of February A. D. 1916, that a Court of Confirmation of the Tax Enforcement Return for the Town of Raymond in the Province of Alberta for arrears of taxes due to the said town to the 31st day of December A. D. 1915 will be held at the Town Hall at the Town of Raymond on the 9th day of May A. D. 1916 at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

DATED at Lethbridge this 4th day of February A. D. 1916

S. Farnham Kimball,
Secretary-treasurer for the said Town of Raymond

H. Ostlund,
Solicitor for the said Town of Raymond.

At the Rex Monday

'The Country Boy'

Paramount in five parts

Our new, spick and span

Modern Cafe IS NOW OPEN

With a Complete Stock of Fruit, Confectionery & Tobacco

N. Y. CAFE

A Few Pairs of MENS Working Shoes Ladies Oxfords And SHOES

Going! Going!

AT HALF PRICE

WATCH For Our New Line Of DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES

O'Brien-Nalder Company Ltd.

Phone 13

The Corner Store

Phone 13